

Faulkner Heritage Festival, November 4-5, 2011

WC Faulkner

Ripley, MS

A celebration of William Faulkner's Tippah County Heritage

Go to: http://www.mainstreet.ripley.ms/Faulkner_Heritage_Festival.html

To register for events and to enter the fiction contest

Colonel WC Faulkner

Friday, November 4, 2011

Writer's Workshop

8:30 am – Orientation (Dixie Theatre)
9:00 am – Walking tour of the Colonel Falkner story
10:30 am – Writer's Workshop Part I (1st United Methodist Church) – Dr. Ben McClelland
Noon – Lunch
1:00 pm – Writer's Workshop Part II (1st United Methodist Church)
2:30 pm – Cemetery Tour
3:30 pm - Fiction Contest Awards Ceremony and Readings

Friday Night, November 4, 2011

6 pm – Early Registration and Reception at Dixie Theatre
7 pm – Movie at Dixie Theatre - The Sound and the Fury

Saturday, November 5, 2011

Part I

9:00 am - Registration at the Tippah County Library
9:30 am – Orientation
10:00 am – Jack Elliott, Historian
11:00 am – Tour of Library's Faulkner Collection
11:30 am – Tour of Tippah County Museum – Book Signing by Dr. Sally Wolff-King
Noon – Luncheon – Location TBA ($15)
1:00 pm – Keynote Address – Dr. Sally Wolff-King
2 pm – Walking tour of the Colonel Falkner story by Bruce Smith
4:30 pm – Spirit Tour of the Ripley Cemetery

Part II

7:00 pm – Dinner at Erin's Off the Square – "Cemetery Spirits" will be present ($25)
8:30 pm – Dessert and Coffee Reception at Harrison Law Office

Sponsored by Ripley Main Street Association and CREATE Foundation

This program is financially assisted by the National Endowment for the Humanities through the Mississippi Humanities Council.